

Coreline Agency - Editor Interview Questions

- 1 You have significant experience and could work with established agencies or build your own freelance reputation. What made you choose to apply to a growing agency like ours, and what are you expecting from this collaboration?
- 2 Have you previously worked with any company, agency, or long-term client? Please briefly describe your role, responsibilities, and your biggest learning from that experience.
- 3 Imagine a client asks for a free sample and refuses to pay any advance or sign a contract. You still deliver a sample, but the client keeps asking for many changes and says they don't like it. How would you respond professionally in this situation?
- 4 What are your long-term plans as a video editor — are you pursuing this professionally or as a hobby? You mentioned being available 7 days a week; is there a specific reason for that? If you are unable to maintain this availability in the future, how would you communicate it with the team?
